PASSAGE FOR ARMY QUESTION AT ISSUE

Diplomats Describe Step
'Friendly' and Report
Assurances for Safety
Troops Never Refused

PARIS, Nov. 24.—Premier Skou-lousis of Greece is quoted by the Petit Parisien today as saying that if the allied forces in Macedonia retreat across the border Greece may disarm them, although the Greek government has not committed itself
on this point. De Maltiere, a correspondent of the Petit Parisien, quotes
Premier Skouloudis as follows:
"Greece is neutral and will remain neutral in spite of pressure. Her neutrality, as it affects the allies, will be of such a benevolent character that Greece will never lift a finger against the allied troops."
"Today we are asked to give an engagement that we will permit the allied armies operating in Serbia to recross our frontier and use Greek territory as a base and a field of operations. This would constitute active co-operation in the war on our part."
"I was obliged to answer that such an event would raise the question of application of the convention adopted
at The Hague, which permits neutrals to prevent by disarming belligerent armies the conversion of their territory into a battlefield."

Ministers Discuss War Attitude of Greece

PARIS, Nov. 24.—The ministers of the entente allies at Athens called upon the Greek government in a body at noon Tuesday to discuss the question of what action Greece would take should allied troops now in Macedonia be compelled to retreat
across the frontier, says a Havas dispatch from the Greek capital.
The message asserts an official statement announcing the action of the diplomats described the step as friendly. Official confirmation of the Athens report has not reached Paris.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A Reuters
message from Athens says the entente ministers presented a collective note to Premier Skouloudis "demanding" that Greece define her attitude.
The cabinet was immediately called together.
After the meeting the Greek ministers said the situation had been cleared by presentation of the note,
which gave the government definite information in regard to what was expected by the allies. These demands were less exacting than had been expected. The ministers added that Greece never had refused to give assurances for the security of allied troops in Macedonia.

Peace Messages Sent to Wilson

President Is Urged to Help End War

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Telegrams by the thousand poured into the White House today from all sections of the country urging President Wilson to assist the movement for a conference of neutrals to attempt to end the European war. Mrs. Henry Ford recently gave $10,000 to the Women's Peace Party toward the telegraph campaign.
The messages, which were suggested by Miss Jane Addams and other leading women peace advocates, were identical. The campaign will be brought to a climax Friday,
when a delegation of women peace
advocates will call on President Wilson.

Von Buelow Confers With High Churchmen

ZURICH, Switzerland, Nov. 24.—Reports of a movement for peace were revived today by a conference here of Prince von Buelow, former German chancellor, with Cardinal Archbishop von Hartmann of Cologne, and Dr. von Muehlberg, Prussian minister to the Vatican. The conference is regarded as of great importance because the cardinal is on his way to Rome
to attend the forthcoming conclave of the College of Cardinals.

—When the feverish effect of the boom in the munition-making industry passes, it will be impossible for industrial business and financial stability to survive under the present tariff schedules.
—We have to go back to the time of James Buchanan to find anything like the condition which faces us now, unless the people demand a change of national policies.—Governor Samuel W. McCall of Massa-

U. S. CRUISER IS ORDERED TO MEXICO

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Admiral
Winslow, commanding the Pacific fleet, was ordered from San Francisco to Topolobampo, Mexico, today with his flagship, the cruiser, San Diego,
which will carry also 25 additional marines ready to land to protect Americans and other foreigners.
This action was decided upon as the result of a conference between Representative Mann of Illinois and Secretary Lansing. In calling the secretary's attention to the looting of property at Los Mochis, in which Chi-

DENIES HIS WIFE IS BENSON'S WIDOW

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—Declaring that he has grave doubts as to whether or not his wife had been previously married to John A. Benson of Benson and Hyde land fraud fame, Louis Goldstone, a lawyer, filed an answer and cross-complaint to the divorce action of Grace V. Goldstone
at the county clerk's office today.
On August 2 Mrs. Goldstone asked for a legal separation on a cruelty charge. Acting as his own attorney, Goldstone said today that he is not satisfied in his own mind that his wife was Benson's widow and that for that reason he will deny it. He alleges further that he is not satisfied

SAY SMUGGLING TIP CAME FROM CHINA

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—That the anonymous letter received by the Federal authorities revealing the plot to smuggle eighty-six Chinese into this port on the Mongolia, came from members of the gang in China, was in a measure confirmed today by United States Attorney John W. Preston. Facts in connection with the plot will be told to the grand jury
at this afternoon's investigation.
A prominent Chinese commissioner,
who had been paid so much a head
in the past when coolies were smuggled, was not given his fee by the

BOY-ED NO NEUTRALITY-BREAKER, LANSING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Secretary Lansing made it clear today that so far as he was able to judge, Captain Boy-ed, the German naval attache, was not guilty of any violation of law in supplying funds for the sending out from American ports
of Hamburg-American vessels to provision German warships at sea.
The secretary pointed out that the matter could not become a subject
for cognizance of the state department unless it was proven in the cases now on trial in New York that Captain Boy-ed had knowledge of the

'SENTIMENT OF COUNTRY REPUBLICAN'

Governor-elect of Massachusetts Foresees
Victory

Reasonably Progressive Attitude Will Win He Asserts

By FREDERICK FAULKNER.
"The defeat of the Democrats in the gubernatorial election in Massachusetts November 2 is an accurate and decisive indication of public sentiment throughout the country regarding the present national Democratic administration."
"If the Republicans adopt a reasonably progressive platform and nominate a reasonably progressive candidate for the 1916 presidential election there will be no national progressive party."
These two statements stand out with conspicuous sharpness in the discussion of the eastern and national political situation by Governor Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts, upon his arrival in Oakland this morning.
The governor has been visiting his son on an Oregon ranch, and is here
for a few days' visit to the exposition. Later he will return home by way of San Diego.
The governor had just emerged
from his Pullman berth when I met him at 7 o'clock. He anticipated the usual inquiry regarding the object of his visit.
"I am taking the rest I very much need," he said. "I had a hard campaign, an exhausting one, and I decided to visit my son's ranch and see the California falls before taking up the work of the governor's office."

RETURN OF PROGRESSIVES.

Governor McCall was asked for the reason for the disappearance of the Progressive party in his state. As he described it the process was as simple as it was complete.
"The Republicans adopted a very progressive platform and addressed it to state and national issues. This succeeded, as was expected, in the progressives of Massachusetts coming back into the Republican party. The return was impressive. Charles Sumner Bird, who as candidate for governor two years ago polled 125,000
votes, and Joseph Walker, who one year ago received 36,000 votes, led in the return movement.
"This, I think, is indicative of what may be expected in the presidential contest next year. If the Republican party adopts a reasonably progressive platform and nominates
a reasonably progressive candidate
there will no longer be a national progressive party."

Charles S. Baxter, who is accompanying Governor McCall on his western trip, was present during the interview and strengthened the governor's statement with this remark:
"Under such conditions there is no chance for the progressives as a national party."

ROOSEVELT MAN ORIGINALLY.

Baxter was Colonel Roosevelt's campaign manager in the Massachusetts presidential primary in 1912 and was the leading Roosevelt delegate
at-large to the Chicago National Republican convention. When Colonel Roosevelt withdrew from the convention, however, Baxter declined to follow him and remained with the Republicans.

Commenting upon the national significance of the Massachusetts election, Governor McCall said:

"The fight was made on state and national issues, but more strongly on national issues. The Democratic state platform contained as its most prominent plank complete endorsement of the Wilson administration, and in the main the battle was carried out on this issue."

"We assailed the Mexican policy of the President, the Underwood-Simmons tariff, the failure of the revenue-raising measures, and the doing away of the working balance in the national treasury through juggling of the bookkeeping system. The people of Massachusetts expressed their approval of these and other administration acts and policies in a most decisive manner."

PRINCIPLES VICTORIOUS.

"In this connection it is worthy of note that local conditions and issues were in the way of victory sought on the simple basis of Republican party principles. Governor Walsh was a very popular man in our state; had twice been governor, and had established a good record. The Democrats were well organized and their campaign was ably conducted. Another thing, the Prohibition candidate for governor made a campaign on the platform of national prohibition legislation and owing to his high standing and his popularity with church
auxiliaries he polled 26,000 votes."

S. P. Earnings Show Increase for October

The Southern Pacific Company in New York today issued its statement of earnings for October, showing a net increase over the same month of the preceding year of $1,243,361. This is the largest gain for that month in the history of the road and is in keeping with returns recently made by other large transportation companies, especially in the west and northwest.

STATE BANK EXAMINER'S AID JAILED

He Confesses Defalcations Which May Be $3000

Wife and Child Are Left Destitute in Oakland
Home

An overpowering temptation, due to the handling of thousands of dollars
of the people's money and the ease with which he knew he could get some of it for himself are the only reasons for his alleged defalcation
given by Frank O. Cramer, chief clerk and confidential assistant of State Bank Examiner W. R. Williams.
Cramer, who lives at 1025 Montgomery street, Oakland, is in the San Francisco city prison, charged with felony embezzlement. With his wife and two-year-old daughter destitute
in Oakland in a well furnished rented home, Cramer is broken in a spirit, ready and willing to tell all and anxious now, he says, only to be set right with the world. It is believed that the misappropriation will reach $3000 and it is understood that already thefts amounting to $1900 have been uncovered.

For years Cramer has been the trusted assistant of Williams. His service with the bank examiner extends to the time when Williams was state treasurer.

His alleged defalcations, which Cramer freely admits, began in 1911,
extending to August of this year,
when, following an investigation by the board of control, he was dismissed from his position. Cramer made good the stealings uncovered up to that time, but when the amount began to rise and when defalcations reaching $2700 were revealed, District Attorney Charles M. Rickett was notified and last night indictments against Cramer were voted by the grand jury. These will be returned in the Superior Court on Friday.

HIS FAMILY LEFT.

"My wife is in Alameda county,"
said Cramer in the San Francisco
city prison this morning. "My little girl was born two years ago last February. They are all I have and now they are destitute. I haven't got a dime to my name. I am not a bad man, but I just took the money. I think I began to take more when my wife was in the hospital, about the time my little girl was born.
"I was chief clerk and confidential man
to Mr. Williams. My first defalcations began in August. I did not take more and to hide it I had to make my reports to the controller in such a way as to balance the cash in the bank. The question of how it was possible for me to appropriate money when no cash was handed in the department, is easily explained. I had always a check that came in endorsed by someone in authority and then cash it in the bank. I had full charge of the receipts and disbursements
and all the necessary vouchers.
"My salary was $225. It was ample to support us, but it seemed so easy to get more. I had always a check of $50 for one of the three privileges, and pocket the remaining fee.
Cramer was arrested in Oakland last night and taken before the grand jury
across the bay. He admitted his guilt and a Superior Court bench warrant was issued for him. He and Williams had a long talk in San Francisco today and this morning Williams came across the bay to comfort Mrs. Cramer.
At the time of the discovery of the defalcations and Cramer's dismissal, friends went to his aid and a shortage of less than $1000 was made good. Apparently Cramer did not know how much he had taken, else he would have expected further complications.
"The money just slipped through my fingers. I did not drink, gamble nor fritter it away. I was loyal with my family and my friends," is his explanation.

Four Transports Reach Saloniki

PARIS, Nov. 24.—Telegraphing
from Saloniki under date of November 23, the correspondent at Saloniki
of the Havas News Agency says:
"Four more transports heavily loaded with troops arrived in port this morning."

ONE LEADER IN WEST.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Premier Asquith told the House of Commons today that he had been considering advisable to place all the land forces
on the western front under one commander. The premier's statement was in reply to a question by Sir George Scott Robertson.

Turk Chamber Asked to Ratify War Pact

AMSTERDAM, via London, Nov.
24.—A telegram from Constantinople says the government has laid before the chamber the Turkish-Bulgarian frontier agreement, which was sent to a committee. The budget for the next financial year, beginning March 14, 1916, also was submitted.

Found Locked in Arms of Burglar Thief and Watchman Fall Down Shaft

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Locked in each other arms, the bodies of Robert Green, an elevator man and watchman and a man believed to be a burglar were found today at the bottom of an elevator shaft in a ten-story loft
building in the shopping section of the city. Green, a negro, apparently had fallen from the top of work on the tenth floor of the building, and while struggling with one of the men both had fallen into the open elevator shaft.

DIRECTORS NOMINATED BY CHAMBER

Candidates for nine seats on the board of directors of the chamber of commerce were nominated today at the membership luncheon of the organization, the election to take place in December. The nominees are as follows:

For the three-year term—Fred
Kahn, Joseph R. Knowland, W. K.
Cole, Arthur Arlett, Jack Howard,
C. H. J. Truman, J. H. Brown, Dr.
L. A. Herrick, J. J. Rosborough,
David McLaughlin, E. Woodward,
S. V. Jones, J. R. Munsell, S. E.
Biddle, J. M. Burroughs, T. W. Morehouse, Harry S. Robinson.
For the two-year term—Dr. A. S.
Kelley and Lewis Gear.

For the one-year term—W. W.
Cribbins, F. J. Woodward.
The peculiar feature of the nomination came with the request of Louis Gear that he run against Dr.
A. F. Kelley. It had been moved that Kelley, who has been filling an acting position, be unanimously elected. As this is impossible under the by-laws, Gear, who had been nominated on the three-year-term
list, requested that he be transferred to run against the doctor.
The board of directors requested his friends not to vote for him, thus ensuring Kelley's election. This was permitted by President Metcalf.

DEBATE FOLLOWS.

A spirited debate took place when President Metcalf requested an expression of opinion on the question
as to whether hereafter nominations shall be made from the floor or by a nominating committee.
W. W. Cribbins, E. B. Bull and
O. E. Hotte opposed the committee plan vigorously, stating it would lay the organization open to criticism as being run by a clique.

The nomination of new directors for the chamber of commerce, to supplant
the seven short-term members retiring from office, and to fill two vacancies, marked a celebration of the passing of the 2500 mark set for the big membership campaign that closed at noon today. Nominations were made at luncheon at the announcement of the completion of the campaign, with forty-five members over
the goal, preceded the nominations,
which were made under the new conditions, with the chamber standing
as a 2500 member chamber.

The nomination is for nine directors to be voted on December 9. According to the chamber's by-laws two nominations
are required for each of the directors.
The retiring directors, under the chamber rules, were not eligible to be candidates
to succeed themselves.

The following members of the old board retire by expiration of term and are not eligible for re-election:
Jules Abraham, B. A. Forrester, Charles
F. Gorman, A. S. Lavenson, W. H. Well-
by, V. O. Lawrence and Dr. J. Loran Lachman.

Dr. A. S. Kelly was chosen by the board to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. L. Aronson. Dr. Kelly is eligible to nomination to fill the two-year
unexpired term of Mr. Aronson.
Frank J. Woodward was chosen by the board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Henry Lachman. Mr. Woodward is eligible for nomination and election to fill the one-year unexpired term of Mr.
Lachman.

All nominations were made from the floor at the luncheon, several of the prominent figures in the membership campaign being named almost at the start. Postmaster J. J. Rosborough was one of the first nominations, applause greeting the calling of his name on the floor.

While only seven directors retire, two other nominations were made, to fill vacancies caused by the death of Henry Lachman and the resignation of D. L.
Aronson. The latter resigned some time ago, when he left for the East. Lachman's death occurred some time ago.

The figure of the membership with the retired 2500 mark closed one of the most remarkable extra gains ever won by a commercial organization in the West, and places the chamber in the strongest memberhood position in the West. The S. Smith
business agent for the Carpenters' Union.

POLICE MAN SHOT DOWN IN NIGHT BY DESPERADO

Duel Is Waged in Pur-

Flee in Stolen Motor

OFFICER FALLS; HIS BLOOD IS AVENGED

Identification of Dead Man May Yet Result in the Capture of Whole
Set of Accomplices

Harry Wilson, alias Joseph Ross, formerly of Oakland, was shot to death in San Francisco last night in a running revolver duel with police,
after he and three accomplices had robbed the bar and patrons of the Claremont hotel, at 3600 Fulton street, and had all but escaped in a stolen automobile. His companions are still at large, having eluded pursuit in the Presidio reservation, but a second victim of the battle, Corporal
of Police Frederick Cook, lies seriously wounded in the Golden Gate Park Emergency Hospital.

Wilson was the man who shot Cook.
Another policeman had used up all his ammunition in the pursuit, and Cook was struck down at close range when running to the rescue.

Lieutenant of Police Sylvester, seeing Cook fall, turned avenger, three balls fired by him penetrating Wilson's body. Both wounded men were taken to the same hospital, where Wilson died. Not long after he had perished, Wilson was identified as the former Oakland suspect by means of finger prints. The Oakland police record shows that he served six months in the Los Angeles county jail,
being released September 30, 1914,
and was arrested in Oakland November of the same year. He gave his age as 31, his trade as teamster.

SEARCH EAST BAY.

In the belief that Wilson was one of a gang of bandits who have robbed
on both sides of the bay, the police are now searching his old rendezvous for three suspected pals who might have been implicated in last night's bold crime. The most tangible clue obtained is the record of Wilson's arrest,
which shows that three men were taken into custody with him. They were:

JOHN F. CONLEY, alias John
F. Connelly, arrested for vagrancy, three months in the county jail.

JOHN DALE, alias John Ryan,
arrested for vagrancy; case dismissed.

CURT H. MARSH, 17 years old, arrested for vagrancy, turned over to the Oakland juvenile court.

The records are dated November 4, 1914. Wilson's sentence, which he served, was $100 or fifty days in jail.
Wilson and his three companions fled for twenty blocks before the police last night, through the Richmond district,
before Corporal Cook and Wilson fell wounded.

The quartet entered the Claremont
Hotel, a San Francisco resort near Golden Gate Park, at 1:30 o'clock. With blue handkerchiefs over their faces, the four men entered the bar. Outside was a small automobile which they had stolen from C. C. Campbell of 426 Page street
business agent for the Carpenters' Union.

DEAD BANDIT IS KNOWN TO POLICE

Gang on East Bay May Be Identified Through His Record.

It had been taken from Sutter and Divisadero streets.

WARNING SPREAD.
As the quartet entered, Edward Smith, one of the proprietors, and Thomas Smith, a bartender, were behind the bar. Two waiters, several men and women were scattered about. Several of the patrons had come in from the dance floor to the hall adjoining. At sight of the robbers, Smith dropped behind the bar, crawled on his hands and knees through a doorway, and dashed up stairs. One of the bandits saw him and started to follow him. The other three robbers were then lined up and searched. Approximately $200 in money and jewelry was obtained from the till and the individuals. The robbers were nervous, knowing that Smith had left, and evidently fearing interference.

Smith's time, the Richmond station was notified and Motorcycle Officer Charles Dulles responded immediately. Sylvester with Patrolman F. E. Starnett followed in the motor patrol. Corporal Cook, coming in a second later, placed a private automobile into service.

Dulles passed the robbers at Thirty-fourth avenue, but did not know it until he reached the Claremont. Returning, he gained on them and opened fire. Sylvester in the auto patrol heard the shooting, and the big machine also took up the pursuit. The chase led down Fulton street to Eighth avenue, across Eighth avenue to Lake street, thence to Sixth avenue and the Presidio wall. Then Dulles jumped from his machine as the bandits dashed up to the wall. He saw two of them jump over into the Presidio. The third walked toward him. What had become of the fourth man is a mystery.

FIGHT FOR LIFE.
The officer pulled the trigger of his gun. It was empty. His ammunition was exhausted. The robber was advancing toward him steadily. Then the auto patrol dashed up. Dulles took refuge behind it and aimed and fired. The bullet hit Police Corporal Cook, who had just jumped from another automobile. Then Sylvester began to shoot, and the bandit fell, pierced by three bullets from an automobile.

Cook and the bandits were hurried to the police station. The wounded man gave his name as Joseph Cook. Later he said it was Henry Miller. He had been shot twice in the abdomen, and once in the left arm. Cook was shot through the left arm, the bullet entering the chest. It is believed he will recover.

The Presidio authorities are attempting to locate the country where the Teutonic invaders are attempting to form a junction with the Bulgarians.

The fate of Monastir remains in the balance. Reports emanating from Athens state that the Bulgarians, having regard for Greek susceptibility, are attempting to form a junction with the Bulgarians.

In the entente capitals, renewed confidence is professed that Greece is moving toward complete agreement with the wishes of the allies. Berlin has been reported that Russia is contemplating a new campaign in the Balkans, for which a large army has been gathered at Odessa. The Germans who have given publicity to this report do not seem at all sure that Rumania will refuse permission to this army to cross her territory.

Petrograd reports a slight advance along the Styr river, with sharp checks for the Germans and Austrians on both the northern and southern positions of the eastern front. Vienna, however, says there is nothing worthy of report along this line. Nevertheless in Vienna and Berlin there is apprehension of the results of the expected Russian offensive in the extreme southern sector.

Italy looks for the immediate fall of Gorizia, which, according to the latest reports, is dominated by artillery of both sides and forms a no-man's land.

British Consul at Persian Post Seized
BUSHIRE, Persia, Nov. 24.—W. T. O'Connor, British consul at Shiraz, the Persian capital, about 115 miles northwest of Bushire, and other members of the British consulate there, were arrested recently at Shiraz and taken to Borazjan, about 25 miles inland from Bushire, where they are detained.

The men of the party who have been released and have arrived at Bushire, declared that General Darnes, alleged to be acting in collusion with the Germans, deceived the Persian governor of the province, stating that the war had been declared and that they were acting under orders from Teheran.

82 Ships Building on Delaware River

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—Contracts for building four more steamships, valued at $3,000,000, have been placed with Delaware river shipbuilding companies, it was learned today. Two of the ships are for the Mexican Petroleum Company.

The others are colliers for the Coastwise Transportation Company and the Pocahontas Navigation Company. With these awards, contracts are now held by yards on the Delaware river for eighty-two ships valued at approximately $85,000,000 and aggregating 353,075 tons. More than 20,000 men are engaged in shipbuilding along the Delaware river.

President to Urge Preparedness Plan

Cabinet Members Approve Draft of Message to Congress

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—President Wilson's message to Congress, approved unanimously by the cabinet, was heard today in the Senate. The message was a call for preparedness, and was a direct appeal to the people of the United States to be ready to defend themselves against any possible attack.

The message was a call for preparedness, and was a direct appeal to the people of the United States to be ready to defend themselves against any possible attack.

Britain Pledges Balkan Action

New Efforts Promised to Serbia

PARIS, Nov. 24.—Important new efforts in the Balkans by Great Britain and France have been promised to Serbia, according to the Saloniki correspondent of the Petit Journal.

He says a member of the Serbian government informed him that Premier Asquith of Great Britain telegraphed the Serbian government assurances of the allies' intention to carry through the Balkan expedition.

Balkan Situation Remains in Doubt

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Contradictory claims to victory in the Balkans leave the present situation in doubt, but it is evident that the advance of the Austro-German armies and their Bulgarian allies is not so rapid as earlier reports indicated.

Apparently heavy fighting is under way in the section of the country where the Teutonic invaders are attempting to form a junction with the Bulgarians.

The fate of Monastir remains in the balance. Reports emanating from Athens state that the Bulgarians, having regard for Greek susceptibility, are attempting to form a junction with the Bulgarians.

In the entente capitals, renewed confidence is professed that Greece is moving toward complete agreement with the wishes of the allies.

Berlin has been reported that Russia is contemplating a new campaign in the Balkans, for which a large army has been gathered at Odessa.

The Germans who have given publicity to this report do not seem at all sure that Rumania will refuse permission to this army to cross her territory.

Petrograd reports a slight advance along the Styr river, with sharp checks for the Germans and Austrians on both the northern and southern positions of the eastern front.

Democratic Convention Not Fixed: McCombs

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Democratic sentiment, judging from reports received by William F. McCombs, chairman of the national committee, favors an early national convention. McCombs said today that from what he had heard from the members of his committee, it was likely that the convention would be held during the first two weeks in June.

Man Slays Lawyer, Then Kills Himself

FORT WORTH, Texas, Nov. 24.—H. O. Ledgerwood, a prominent attorney, and J. N. Whisenant of Dallas are dead following a shooting in Ledgerwood's office this morning.

Whisenant is said to have killed the lawyer first, then himself. The Dallas man was recently indicted for fraudulent use of the mails in connection with a bankruptcy case.

CARRANZA LEADERS FAIL IN PLAN TO CRUSH VILLA

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Nov. 24.—A cable dispatch from Carranza today indicated that the failure of his commanders, combined with erroneous information, had resulted in a complete failure in the plans of General Alvaro Obregon to crush the Villa forces in Sonora and end revolutionary strife in Mexico.

General Obregon, according to the cable, was reported to have been defeated in a battle with Carranza's forces near the border of Sonora and Mexico.

The President will, as he did last year, again declare that it is proper for young men to learn to be soldiers and express the belief that plans submitted by the army general staff call for a standing force larger than the country wants.

Japan Ready to Send Army to War

Statement Comes From Baron Ishii

PARIS, Nov. 24.—Japan is willing to send a strong army to Europe if the need arises, the Tokio correspondent of the Petit Parisien says. A statement to this effect is credited to Baron Ishii, the Japanese foreign minister.

The foreign minister is quoted as saying only one-third of the men mobilized by Russia have been armed, but that by the end of the month of January will have done much toward arming completely the other two-thirds.

Mexican Railroad Tied Up by Strike

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 24.—A demand for payment in silver, followed by a strike, has tied up transportation on the Mexican Northwestern railroad from Juarez to El Paso, Texas, south to Chihuahua City. The demand for silver was based upon a recent decree of the Villa officials.

Tells How Steamer Reached Warships

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—How the Hamburg-American line succeeded in reaching German warships in the Atlantic in August and September, 1914, with 2000 tons of coal and large amounts of foodstuffs by means of the steamer, the Berwind, an American boat under the American flag, was told today on the witness stand by the Berwind's captain, Fritz Edward Falkenberg.

Captain Falkenberg was a government witness in the trial of Dr. Karl Buehr, George Kotter, Adolph Hochmeister and Joseph Poppinghaus, all officials of the Hamburg-American line on trial on charges of conspiring to deceive and defraud the United States.

The witness said that first Poppinghaus ordered him to stay within the limits of the Hamburg-American line, but later instructed him to steer for Cape Roque.

The weather was stormy, so the Berwind was delayed, but finally she discharged her provisions.

N. Y. Evidence to Be Used on Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—All of the evidence gathered in New York city with reference to the alleged violation of neutrality laws resulting in the indictment here of five local business men will be used at the trials to begin on December 13.

In addition the evidence in the hands of United States Attorney Preston here will be used in the New York cases. The implication of Captain Richard Boyed, naval attaché of the German embassy, as director and supervisor of the scheme to coal German warships through the clearance of vessels by false papers, came partly as the result of evidence obtained here.

The nature of this evidence was revealed this morning by Attorney Preston. Gustave E. Kulenkampf, who brought Boyed's name into the New York proceedings, testified when examined here that he had been called up on the matter while in New York from the German embassy at Washington by Captain Boyed.

He says, said to him, "You are going to get $750,000 in a few days from a German bank. Don't be alarmed. Show no deposit."

Kulenkampf's testimony shows that of this amount, deposited $225,000 in Wells Fargo Nevada National Bank and $225,000 in the Crocker National Bank in this city, all placed at the disposal of Franz Bopp, the German consul. It is claimed in the indictments against these men here that the money was used to finance the German warships on this coast.

Kulenkampf will be one of the chief witnesses examined here. The defendants, who are to be tried, are all prominent in the business world. They are Philip R. Thayer, president of the Northern and Southern Steamship Company, John G. Hoyt and R. H. Swaine of the brokerage firm of Swaine, Hoyt and Company; C. D. Bunker of C. D. Bunker and Company, shipping agents, and Joseph Bley, a shipper.

Letters Identified in Schmidt Trial

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—Identification of letters and other documents said to have a bearing on the alleged dynamite conspiracy in the East, was resumed today at the trial of Matthew A. Schmidt, charged with the murder of Charles Hagen, one of the twenty victims of the Los Angeles Times explosion on October 1, 1910.

According to the attorneys for the state this preliminary identification testimony by stenographers formerly employed in the office of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, will take up all the time today and possibly all the remainder of the week, after which the evidence will be given in the form of direct and cross examinations, will give their evidence in an effort to connect Schmidt and the Pacific Coast dynamiters with the Eastern conspiracy.

Asks Censor for House of Lords

Earl of Derby Angry at Utterances

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The Earl of Derby, in charge of British recruiting, speaking before the Stock Exchange today, declared that the House of Lords needed a censor.

He denounced freedom of speech, such as that employed in the recent harangue delivered by Lord St. Davids in the House of Lords in which he attacked the British headquarters staff.

"The man who gives information to the enemy," said Lord Derby, "goes to an ugly name and it should be given just as much to a speech delivered in the House of Lords as to a man who reads his state getting information for the enemy."

After stating that "no gentleman" would have made, and no gentleman would believe Lord St. Davids' accusations and objections, Lord Derby's recent utterances to a House of Lords, Lord Derby spoke of recruiting.

He said he had not come to enlist recruits in the Stock Exchange, but to ask the loyal cooperation of its members in the scheme he had undertaken.

Supreme Effort Is Plan of Serbians

PARIS, Nov. 24.—There appears to be confirmation of the report that the Serbian army of General Bokoritch is now opposing only a thin screen to the Austro-German advance, says a Saloniki dispatch dated Monday. The main forces have been concentrated on the Kosovo Plain.

General Bokoritch will hurl 90,000 men against the 120,000 Bulgarians guarding the defiles of Katchanik and Kotoshos.

The Serbians may even attempt the supreme effort of dashing into Ushkup and on to Vales, there to join hands with the French. But in order that the battle shall end in anything but a sublime suicide the operation must be carried out energetically and success must be achieved promptly.

There is good reason to believe the Bulgarians will not occupy Monastir until the arrival of the first detachments of Austro-German troops.

Early Submarine Is Hauled From River

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—The submarine "Fukiller," which has been missing for twenty-five years, has been found at the bottom of the Chicago river.

The "Fukiller" was so called because it first made its appearance shortly after the great Chicago fire in 1871, when submarines were unheard of and drowned its original owner when it made a trial trip.

Working on the bottom of the river yesterday found the craft buried in three feet of mud. The boat is cigar-shaped, about forty feet in length and five feet wide. It was so constructed that it sank until all the water was submerged was an airpump, which stood up ten feet from the deck.

The craft probably will be raised and kept by the Chicago Historical Society.

Dictator in Clothes for Army Is Urged

COLOGNE, via London, Nov. 24.—The Volks Zeitung in a sharp article, urges the Reichstag, which meets next week, to call the government to account for its failure to deal adequately with the problem of supplying foodstuffs.

To supply the German nation with provisions is at present the most important military question and one which must be carried through before winter," the Volks Zeitung says. "This doubtless will be recognized by the supreme army command, whose orders will find no opposition. We recommend the appointment of an economic dictator in military clothing."

The article closes with an attack on Herr von Stein, recently appointed under-secretary of the interior, on the ground that he has not dealt energetically enough with the food problem.

M'CALL PREDICTS VICTORY FOR G.O.P.

National Sentiment Rises Against Democratic Rule, He Believes.

Governor McCall believes victory will be easily won by the Republicans in 1916 along the same line on which he achieved success in Massachusetts.

"When the feverish, 'spotted' effect of the boom in the munition-making industry passes it will be impossible for industrial business and financial stability to survive under the Underwood tariff. We have to go back to the time of James Buchanan and find anything like the condition which faces us unless the people demand a change of national policies."

HARD TIMES THREATEN.
"The war has brought temporary prosperity only in spots—rather it has prevented depression in spots. When the war orders cease hard times are an absolute certainty. New England realizes this to a fuller extent, perhaps, than any other section of the country. We know our factories are busy now merely to make ammunition, arms, shoes, clothing and blankets for the belligerents. When this trade ceases we face disaster unless the existing tariff is revised."

Governor McCall was more diffident about discussing the prospects of New England providing the Republican Presidential nominee in 1916. That the attempt to put the question adversely failed is shown by the Governor's reply.

"Oh, that is another matter; we can't afford to get this Presidential bee on slight provocation. It is too early yet to tell. We just finished the state campaign and then this other thing came on and we thought we would come out here and take a rest."

"This other thing" is taken to refer to the development of the fact that Massachusetts Republicans, since the recent election, are not as solidly behind the candidacy of Senator Weeks as was theretofore believed. Also a "McCall" propaganda has developed activity, and is reported to be getting along fairly well during the governor's absence. Governor McCall stated he was not yet ready to make any announcement regarding his candidacy for President.

Mr. Barker took occasion to say that "if a good strong, Progressive Republican leader is developed" New England has a good chance to land first place on the Presidential ticket.

LIFE HAS BEEN ACTIVE

Mr. McCall was a member of Congress from 1893 to 1913 and in 1876 was admitted to the bar, practicing for several years in Boston. In 1874 he was graduated from Dartmouth with the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and in 1891 took the degree of Doctor of Laws in Oberlin College.

For one year McCall was editor-in-chief of the Boston Daily Advertiser and was a delegate to the Republican National Convention in 1888 and 1900. He was a member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives during the years of 1888, 1889, 1892 and was a member of Congress from 1893 to 1913. He is also an author, having written, among other works, "Life of Thaddeus Stevens," "Dartmouth Centennial Address of Daniel Webster," and "The Business of Congress," as well as magazine articles.

ITCHING ECZEMA ON FACE AS RASH

Extended to Chest. Very Sore. Caused Loss of Sleep. Clothing Aggravated Breaking Out.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My eczema first began as a rash on my face, and then extended to my chest. It caused me face and chest to become sore and it also caused discomfort for the time being, also itching, burning and loss of sleep. The skin was red and inflamed and I irritated the affected parts by scratching. My clothing also aggravated the breaking out on my body."

"The trouble lasted about three months and I used many remedies but found Cuticura Soap and Ointment brought about relief while the other remedies seemed to have no effect. I bathed the affected part with Cuticura Soap and afterward applied the Ointment. Within a few days they afforded relief and within two weeks I was completely healed." # Rainfall Light, But Storm Still Impends

The rainfall in California during the last twenty-four hours was exceedingly light. With the exception of the northwestern portion of the State, the precipitation did not come up to the expectations and hopes of the farmers. In the bay cities it fell and there was but little more than this in the valley. The rain extended as far south as Bakersfield, but did not go below the Tehachap. Bakersfield received 1.15. A big storm has been hovering off the northwest coast for the last two weeks, sending out small arms from time to time. The weather bureau is puzzled as to just what is going to happen next, but expects the storm breaks up more rain is expected.

THOUSANDS VISIT MILWAUKEE BIG WARSHIP BIDS FAREWELL HARBOR GUEST MAKES RECORD

More than 15,000 people, more than ever before inspected the vessel in a day, visited the United States battleship Milwaukee before it left its place at the Oakland quay yesterday. This is the first time in history that a battleship has been docked in the United States anywhere except at a navy yard.

The attendance figures were compiled this morning by M. M. Jones, secretary of the industrial bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, who directed a portion of the harbor day activities yesterday and assisted in receiving the crowds of spectators who thronged the ship yesterday and again this morning. The vessel remained just 24 hours at the Oakland quay.

Captain M. F. Simons of the vessel conferred the honors of the Oakland industrial secretary this morning before leaving, it being he who announced that this crowd was the largest to visit the ship in a day. The reason for this, he suggested, lay in the fact that the vessel was docked and therefore accessible to all. The fact that the Oakland harbor is only a few blocks from the shipping and downtown districts, he said, was also the reason of a large portion of the crowd.

"I leave Oakland with many happy recollections and proud of the fact that my ship was the first to visit your harbor," said the naval officer today. "This visit was something new in naval annals and something remarkable in the history of modern battleship practice."

"There was no trouble in entering the harbor and we came in on our own power, showing how easily navigable your estuary is."

GOLD SEEKER IS AFTER SECRETARY

Musically Inclined Girl Is Offered Chance to Sail the South Seas.

It's easy enough to find a ship, find pirate treasure, start a revolution or carry dynamite for warring nations—but it's some job to pick out a secretary from a bevy of pretty California girls.

So declares the redoubtable Captain James Brown, pirate gold seeker and adventurer, who is soon to leave the Oakland estuary with the whaler Jeanette in search of pirate gold on Coos Bay Island. At least, he's going to start soon if he can choose a secretary. To date he has not made a decision.

"Wanted, young lady over 20, musically inclined and of good appearance." This is his list of qualifications. He says he will pay $100 a month for a girl to accompany him on the voyage, act as his secretary and soothe his soul with music. The captain declares he knows where the hidden gold is and will return with a fortune worth many millions. He will also haul a cargo of dynamite for the Russian government on his ship, he says.

The whaler Jeanette has lain for a long time in the estuary and is now being put in a seaworthy condition.

Real Estate Values Brought Into Case

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 24.—The introduction of real estate valuations of the Santa Fe, Frisco, Rock Island & Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroads in the State of Oklahoma was reached in the case here when the Santa Fe brought the first of its many appraisals to the stand to testify as to the value of that railroad's land in Ellis county.

S. T. Bledsoe, chief counsel for the Santa Fe, stated that local real estate men in each county were instructed to find the market value of the land used by the road. The market value only was to be found in towns, while the country land was valued on the "loss to the owner basis applied to the holdings."

Woman Accuser Is Found Near Death

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—Three hours after Herbert White, a real estate agent who had been accused by Mrs. Alice Baldwin Hammill of beating Charles F. Fenwick, an aged diamond broker, to death here more than two years ago, had been released, his accuser was found unconscious in a downtown hotel suffering from the effects of poison. The police say they are convinced the woman attempted to end her life.

Her screams attracted the attention of other guests who called detectives to investigate. Mrs. Hammill was removed to a hospital where she regained consciousness after restoratives had been applied. Physicians stated she would recover.

White was released late yesterday upon orders from the district attorney's office.

Kills Self to Win Notice for Book

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 24.—Herman Hensze, 45 years old, succeeded in shooting himself through the heart while standing in a crowd at Third avenue and Washington street last night. A short time after his death a long letter from Hensze was directed to Mrs. A. J. Winder, newspaper announcing that he would kill himself in order that a book he had written expounding Christianity should receive publicity. The letter explained that the manuscript had been deposited in a safe deposit vault, where it would be found by the chief of police, who was to guard it until the newspapers could agree which should publish his work. In his letter Hensze said he was born in Germany and came to the United States 25 years ago. During the last three years, his letter said, he had lived in the vicinity of Seattle, earning a living by fishing while writing his book.

Former Justice Wilder Sued for Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—The socially elect of both here and Honolulu will be surprised to learn that Mrs. A. J. Wilder, one of the leaders of the ultra-fashionable set in the mid-Pacific metropolis, yesterday filed suit for divorce from Judge A. A. Wilder, who was formerly justice of the Hawaiian Supreme Court.

Judge Wilder arrived in this city yesterday morning on the Matsunaka. Mrs. Wilder probably arrived in Honolulu about the same time the judge reacted home. They married each other in mid-ocean. Last evening Judge Wilder was apprised by cablegram that Mrs. Wilder had filed a divorce action against him.

Judge Wilder announced last evening that he would not contest Mrs. Wilder's suit.

Falls From Wagon to Snow; Dies of Cold

NORTH TAVINA, Wash., Nov. 24.—John Martin of Natchez City was frozen to death in a snowbank when his wagon upset while he was hauling supplies to a mine in the Cascade mountains above Bumpkin Lake. Jack Robillard, Martin's companion, fell into Bumpkin river and injured. He was unable to extricate Martin from the deep snow unaided and Martin died before help could be summoned.

CHARGES DISMISSED

SAN JOSE, Nov. 24.—On motion of Assistant District Attorney H. L. Bridges, charges of misusing a fictitious check was dismissed against Attorney Jeff L. Mallory, a former Stanford student. Bridges stated the witness in the case did not desire to prosecute as full restitution had been made.

Ship Under U. S. Flag Captured by British

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The American Transatlantic Company, owners of the steamship Kanakkee, received today a cable message from Captain Bergh of their steamship Mantowau at Buenos Aires reading: "Consul here understands Kanakkee captured."

The Kanakkee was purchased recently by the Argentine government and is now under the Argentine flag.

Height Near Gorizia Taken by Italians

ROME, Nov. 24.—Further advances for the Italian forces in the Gorizia area are announced by the war office in a statement. The crest of the Calvario Height near Gorizia was reached and maintained by the Italians, and the position recently declared, and the position recently declared, and the position recently declared.

Anna Benazet's Death Sentence Commuted

PARIS, Nov. 24.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Madrid says that the sentence of death passed upon Anna Benazet by a Spanish court martial at Huesca late in October, has been commuted to life imprisonment.

WHAT IS ELECTRICAL PROSPERITY WEEK?

ELECTRICAL PROSPERITY WEEK is an event inaugurated by the United Electrical Interests. These interests will, naturally, be the most active participants—but it is an event containing universal appeal, and it is not undertaken in an altogether selfish spirit. Everybody will be interested. Everyone will participate.

The entire country will be electrified. Electricity is closely linked with progress, with prosperity. It has done more for mankind than any other agent. It has become a necessary factor in all of life's activities. Life holds greater enjoyment to the extent that electricity is allowed to render more service. All this will be emphasized in a blaze of light extending from Coast to Coast, from Canada to Mexico—and every known agency will be employed toward the success of ELECTRICAL PROSPERITY WEEK.

That week's experience will create in the people a desire to live in an electrical atmosphere—to their advantage and benefit; and also to the profit of everyone engaged in the electrical industry. The Society has no axe to grind, no aim except ELECTRICAL PROSPERITY—and hear in mind that you can save as much as you CO-OPERATE in this campaign to "DO IT ELECTRICALLY."

COST IS GOING DOWN.

Though it has been said times without number, it is always worth retelling that the cost of electric service keeps coming down while everything else is going up. Food, shelter, clothing, luxuries—all cost much more now than they did ten years ago, and none of them has bettered in quality. Ten years ago none of the public utilities gave the service it gives today, and all of them charged more for it. For less money you can send more messages, talk longer, and reach out farther in all directions by telephone today than you could in 1903. You can cable to Europe or telegraph across country at a fraction of what you used to pay. For a nickel you can ride to your heart's content in a trolley car. The Mazda lamp has cut your lighting bill to about one-third of what it used to be.

SAVING SHOWN WITH AN ELECTRICAL WASTER.

Again we hear from the man with the mathematical brain.

A washerwoman receives one dollar a sixty cents a day for one or two meals, say twenty-five cents. This means nearly one hundred dollars a year.

An electric washing machine costs about one cent an hour to operate. Four hours will do the average family washing. This means four cents a day or about two dollars a year.

Therefore, in less than one year the saving will pay for the washing machine.

This mathematical sharp, however, did not know that the saving in clothes and linen, due to their not requiring hard rubbing, amounted to a neat little sum. Again electricity does it better and cheaper.

Workmen Not Affected by Failing Contractor

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 24.—The State of California, the laborers and mechanics employed on the new electric school building at Fresno—the contract price of which is $218,000—are amply protected against the failure of the contractor to complete the building by the future of the surety company. It is possible the state will be obliged to go ahead. At this time no definite decision has been reached.

TEACHERS' COLLEGE BY U. S., IS PLAN

System of Education Needs Reform, Taft Tells Pedagogues.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The conversion of the United States Bureau of Education into a national university for school teachers, was advocated today by President Taft in an address before the New York State Teachers' Association.

Mr. Taft criticized the present system of education in the United States as being in many instances inefficient and superficial, and suggested that the federal government might, through a system of inspection and criticism, be able to bring about a higher standard, both in respect to teachers and methods.

Explaining his scheme for co-operation of the federal and state authorities, Professor Taft said:

"Through its bureau of education the national government might help to promote state education by offering machinery to the people of a municipality, of a county or of a state by which they might, if they chose, have the schools they pay for investigated and the value of the education given tested by a survey of officers of the United States Bureau of Education."

Referring to a plan for making the Bureau of Education a national university for teachers, Taft said:

"By searching and thorough teachers' examinations, the federal certificates would acquire a high value for their holders and the professional qualification for teaching would be generally improved."

As a proof of the defects of the present system Taft referred to the report of the Carnegie Foundation for the advancement of teaching which showed that the local school superintendents of some states miswrote words and cannot write good English.

Referring to the criticism which he said was widely and justifiably made that American school children received only a superficial education, Taft said:

"The criticism that we hear from England of the Rhodes Scholars ought to give us anxiety as to our system of education and bring to our minds that our standards are not as high as they should be. That our discipline possesses a certain degree of flabbiness."

Taft declared that "there is a most important waste of valuable human time in the years of the life of the boy and the girl between 6 and 14 years."

"In the German schools and in the English schools," he said, "the amount that boys between 6 and 14 are required to commit may be of some use to our admiration and wonder because it is so out of proportion to the amount that we require of our children. The German youth at 15 is as well prepared to enter a college course as our boys at 18. He has made up three years by harder work, longer hours and fewer vacations."

Houdini Will Be Put to Hard Test

Tonight at the Orpheum Houdini is to submit to a test that has created talk all over town. Houdini has accepted a challenge from the packing company of the Roos Brothers Company.

Houdini has agreed to attempt an escape from a big box case which the Roos Brothers men will build out of their own lumber and nails and ropes in full view of the Orpheum audience.

It should be a mighty interesting affair, and it will go far towards convincing thousands that Houdini is really a wizard.

It is announced that Houdini will enter this packing box after the Roos Brothers men have built it on the stage, will be nailed in by the Roos Brothers men and that the box will be secured with bound with ropes.

The audience will witness all this, because it will be done under the blaze of a thousand electric lights. Any one who desires can go up on the stage and watch the box being built.

The wonderful stunt performed by Houdini when he escaped from a scant-jacket while hanging in mid-air downward started the tongues of 10,000 people wagging about him and he is easily the most talked of man in Oakland today.

Taft Resigns Office in Relief Committee

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Henry W. Taft, brother of former President William H. Taft, announced today his resignation as vice-president of the national allied relief committee.

The committee was organized about a month ago to administer funds collected in the United States for the relief of war sufferers of the entire allies. Among its members are Chas. W. Elliot, Myron T. Herrick, August Belmont and Howard Elliott.

Mr. Taft said he resigned because his signature had been attached without his knowledge to an appeal for funds issued by an official of the committee which contained a denunciation of Germany.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 24.—The government's suit against the American Sugar Refining Company to recover $120,000 and interest which, it is charged, the corporation failed to pay because of the alleged fraudulent reduction of the duty test sugar imported by it through the port of New Orleans, will begin in Federal Court here on December 6. It is charged the alleged frauds were committed between 1909 and 1907.

The government's case, it was said, will be based on the results of extensive investigations made by the Department of Justice in 1910 and 1914.

Identify Body on Beach as Artist's

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—A body found in the ocean off Rockaway Beach ten days ago is believed by friends to be that of William Walton, a landscape artist and author, who disappeared from his Manhattan studio two weeks ago. The police said last night that Dr. William H. H. identified the body and that other friends were inclined to believe it that of Walton. They said the artist had been visiting friends on Long Island shortly before his disappearance.

Peeling the Skin's Better Than Bleaching

Ever since the discovery that mercurized would absorb and remove a layer of skin, it has been used by ladies as a method of bleaching their faces and skin. A perfect complexion can be maintained, unimpaired, by this remarkable substance if used. Its remarkable cleansing, clearing and preservative action is quickly apparent, and ladies who have been paying high prices for "special bleaches" from beauty specialists, soon recognize that mercurized wax outranks them all. It has become so popular that it can be obtained at all drug stores, who have in original one-ounce packages. The favorable way of using it is to apply it, like any cream, before retiring, washing it off in the morning.

Christmas Announcement

BY THE
RETAIL DRY GOODS ASSOCIATION of Oakland

Stores Open Only Two Evenings Before Christmas as Usual

The undersigned members of the Retail Dry Goods Association of Oakland will follow their usual custom of keeping open only two evenings preceding Christmas, December 23rd and 24th.

This rule of keeping open only two evenings is not an innovation, but was inaugurated by the members of the association for the benefit of their employees several years ago, and has been, and will be strictly adhered to by them.

Because of Being Open Only Two Evenings We Urge Early Shopping

The co-operation of the public in this respect will be greatly appreciated by our employees, as it will materially lighten their task and afford better store service in every way.

CHIEF OF POLICE,

Oakland, Calif., Nov. 20, 1915.

Dear Sir:
Having heard of your wonderful ability to escape from tight places, and especially from torture suits and locks, I would, as a police officer, like to ascertain if your infallibility is as claimed. I would therefore like to witness an escape from a "Punishment Suit," such as is used for the murderous insane, and which I myself will restrain you with. This "Punishment Suit" is of a special design, and said by its maker to be an almost perfect restraint. I know of no one else having escaped from it. If agreeable, I would like to test you with this Friday night at the Pantheas.

Very respectfully,

W. F. Woods

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1915.

"F. O. B. OAKLAND."

The visit to the municipal quay yesterday of the first class cruiser Milwaukee demonstrated that vessels of ninety-five hundred tons displacement and twenty-six-foot draft can enter the inner harbor of Oakland at low-tide. This fact carries with it an additional advantage to commercial and business Oakland.

In the future we may insist that goods be quoted, and bought and sold, "free-on-board Oakland." We now have water and rail transportation facilities extended to our door. From all the splendid inducements the city has been able to extend to factories seeking a new location, the one drawback has now been extracted. Manufacturers may now fix their prices on products on board cars or steamer and know they do not have to meet any extraordinary charges in the form of drayage, ferry-costs, etc. Eastern manufacturers also can sell their goods "delivered in Oakland," without facing any of the disadvantages that have heretofore existed. The consumers of Oakland will no longer have to pay the profits of a local middleman operating somewhere near San Francisco bay.

The Panama Canal has at last been opened to the traffic of this city. When the slides in Culebra cut are removed and ships again come through the new commercial waterway they can dock at Oakland as easily as at any other port on the Pacific Coast. We now have the same rates for water transportation as any other city and that means, perforce, the same railway rates, even if nothing else intervenes in the meantime to equalize conditions.

So, for the value of emphasis, we repeat that the celebration of the completion of the first unit in Oakland's waterfront development marks the beginning of a new era in this city's commercial development. We have passed beyond the theoretical and speculative stage. Our future course is definitely mapped out. We may add that the certainty of our destiny is universally recognized. Oakland shall become one of the greatest commercial ports of the Pacific. Having realized and determined to develop our unparalleled natural advantages along definite and fixed lines, the part remaining is work. The city and the Federal government must push forward the improvement of our harbor with all possible speed. The people of this city must lend their support with a hearty enthusiasm that will spur the work on, yet with a scrutiny that will insure efficiency and adherence to the true purpose. This is Oakland's opportunity.

RECOGNITION FOR AMERICA.

The United States has recently received important recognition by an auxiliary of the Catholic church. The Superior-General of the Society of Jesus, as the Jesuit order is officially known, had heretofore five assistants and the jurisdiction of each was considered an "Assistancy," and the United States was included in the so-called English assistancy, comprised, besides this country, of England, Ireland and Canada. At the General Congregation held in Barcelona, Spain, last January to name a successor to the late Father Francis Xavier Wernz, a sixth assistancy was created and made to comprise the United States exclusively. The new Superior-General, Father Ledochowski, who gives America, for the administration purposes of the Jesuit Order an independent status, is a nephew of the cardinal of that name who was for many years, under Pope Leo XIII, prefect of propaganda.

The new arrangement is in line with the policy of the pontifical administration at Rome to make the United States an independent and individual unit so far as church work is concerned, and which was first indicated by the creation of the new American cardinals. The late Cardinal Ledochowski developed, while prefect of propaganda, the arrangements for removing the United States, as far as the Catholic church is concerned, from the rank of a mission country and toward full canonical rights and privileges. It is a happy coincidence that the more recent changes were directed by the cardinal's nephew.

To the members of the Catholic church in America this news will be received with significance. There are many educational institutions in the United States under the supervision of the Jesuit order. Teachers, students and graduates of these schools and colleges have for many years felt that the United States should be ranked as an independent assistancy, and have believed that such a step would promote the prestige of the American Jesuit foundations. To all it will be pleasant to observe that the systems of administration which considered the United States a part of Old World countries are being reformed to meet the changing conditions.

COLLEGE MILITARY TRAINING.

Whatever may be the fate of the national preparedness program in Congress it will be a source of gratification to those believing that the country should be ready for any eventualities in international relations, to observe that the schools and colleges of the country are turning out students with some measure of the soldier's art and science. Many of the educational institutions have not waited to see what the President and Congress intend to do.

One of the most noteworthy instances of military training in colleges is found at Cornell. In his annual report just made public President Schurman discloses the fact that last year one thousand and eighty freshmen were enrolled in the military training corps. Inasmuch as early in the present year the board of trustees passed a resolution requiring sophomores also to attend military drills, the number of students in training next year will be about doubled.

The War Department this year designated Cornell as one of the distinguished institutions for excellence in military training among the sixty-five military colleges and universities of the country. The inspecting officer reported that the military instruction was of such extent and thoroughness as to qualify the average student for a commission as lieutenant of volunteers.

If all the other big universities and colleges of the country would justify such an observation the vexed question of providing officers for a great volunteer force in time of war would to a very large extent be solved. There are scores of institutions in the United States graduating from five hundred to one thousand students yearly and if these graduates were turned out with a knowledge of the rudiments of military science they would be a national asset of inestimable value. Very few men complete a college course without building up an enduring faith in their country and a willingness to protect their country's just rights. The Nation has no fear that its college-trained men will not respond to the call to defend the country in satisfactory number. There are other colleges doing the same as Cornell to a relative degree, but there are not enough. All colleges, especially those receiving government aid, should make military training a part of the curriculum. By instilling a higher regard for discipline and obedience to the rules of the faculty it will make vastly easier the control of the student body and it will give the country a potential quota of intelligent trained soldiers not obtainable in any other way.

The banks of California have been subject to the most rigid scrutiny by the State Bank Commissioner for several years. This supervision has often been felt to be more exacting than the strictest safeguard of the public interest required. It has often, so bankers have held, been extremely hampering and needlessly irritating; and the idea would have been justified that those responsible for it were looking after the details of their offices on the same high plane. What is the surprise, then, to find that the assistant and intimate friend of the head of the commission has been guilty of embezzlement, his peculations extending over a period of five years, and aggregating the ascertained amount of $2700. If the same searching supervision of the Bank Commissioner's own affairs that was applied to the banks of the State had prevailed, a most desirable consistency would have been maintained, and a painful disclosure in an important branch of the public service would have been avoided.

On another page of today's TRIBUNE is published an interview with Governor Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts, who arrived in Oakland this morning. Gov. McCall's discussions of two phases of the national political situation are of particular interest. He says the recent election in his State, which resulted in his being chosen governor over a strong Democratic opponent, Governor Walsh, indicates that the people of the country are tired of the Wilson administration and convinced of the destructive tendency of Democratic national policies. He also gives the real reason for the passing of the Progressives as a political party of legal standing in Massachusetts. That, too, is indicative of the results to be expected in the other States of the country.

Computed upon the public school attendance, the population of California is 3,144,716, an increase over 1910 of 800,000. The percentage increase is slightly over thirty per cent for the five years. If the rate of increase continues the population of California in 1920 should be about 4,000,000; in other words, the population of the State will have doubled in ten years. This rapid increase should be borne in mind constantly by those having to do either directly or indirectly in providing facilities for modern urban life. The tendency of the new population is to drift toward the larger cities where the greater proportion of growth is recorded. Oakland's phenomenal growth during the last eight years is continuing and in the school census increases she ranks with San Francisco and Los Angeles.

NOTES and COMMENT

A Chicago football hero has been sued for breach of promise. That is a bad kick-off.

The mayor of San Francisco wins the Hetch-Hetchy fight, and the $43,000,000 in water bonds are not to be issued all at once to afford an eternal motif for politicians.

Hetty Green, richest woman in the world, celebrated her eightieth birthday by taking a nice upland ride in a street car. It cost five cents, but then what is a matter of expense on one's birthday?

The football scores this year are for the most part tearfully loaded. California figured in about the worst of them all, losing 72-0, but in other games throughout the country, the singularity is almost as noticeable.

When the gates of the exposition close there will without doubt have passed through them more than 18,000,000 people. And all of them have been made to feel that they had their money's worth.

Gompers was assailed in the closing hours of the labor convention, but it never touched him as an official. Things may come and things may go, but as to the presidency of the A. F. L., Gompers goes on forever.

As a quick mobilizer the vagrant dog which meets another in the busy district and proceeds to have it out with him may hold first place, but the agile chap in the haberdasher's window, demonstrating a new suspender, runs him a good second.

The official body that doesn't feel its duty to probe something or somebody is a rare one. The probing is generally commenced with great solemnity, but it soon peters out in most cases. It is probably the worst itself that is responsible.

That is a queer thing that is said of the birds of Europe—that they are flourishing because all who have guns are too busy killing each other to molest the feathered creatures. Such facts as this must have inspired the saying, "What fools we mortals be!"

This alarming headline appears in a San Francisco paper: "Cannon Put in Charge of the Chinatown Squad." But do not have visions of an uprising, or a general running amok, or highlanders. It is W. H. Cannon, the police corporal, who has been assigned to take charge.

Twenty-six beauties are announced as having arrived from Arkansas on a visit to the exposition. The engineer of the Panama Canal concession conducted them around all by himself. He could never have got away with it if there had been decent publicity regarding the glorious invasion.

A Chico charivari party numbering one hundred found out after the serenade that the newly weds had been exposed to scarlet fever, and now the joke is that the members of the party may be quarantined. The boomerang is an instrument that comes back on the party sending it forth.

An Alameda man has been arrested for building an ark. Faithfully reading his Bible, an Alameda habit, he came across an account of a ship-builder of the name of Noah, and was much struck with his achievement. So he started in to build one himself. But he was arrested under profane nineteenth century building laws.

It is told in the news now the political jokers of Alliance, Ohio, put a woman on the ticket as a candidate for constable when she did not seek nor expect such office, and how it turned out that she was elected. It sometimes happens that way. The political jokers of San Francisco are able to remember the instance of Dr. O'Donnell.

THE DEPLETED TREASURY.

"Ridiculously untrue" is Secretary McAdoo's phrase to characterize the state-ment by Senator Thomas J. formerly United States Senator from Oregon, to the effect that the Treasury's general balance would be only three and a half millions if the statement were made up as it was before the Democratic administration was inaugurated.

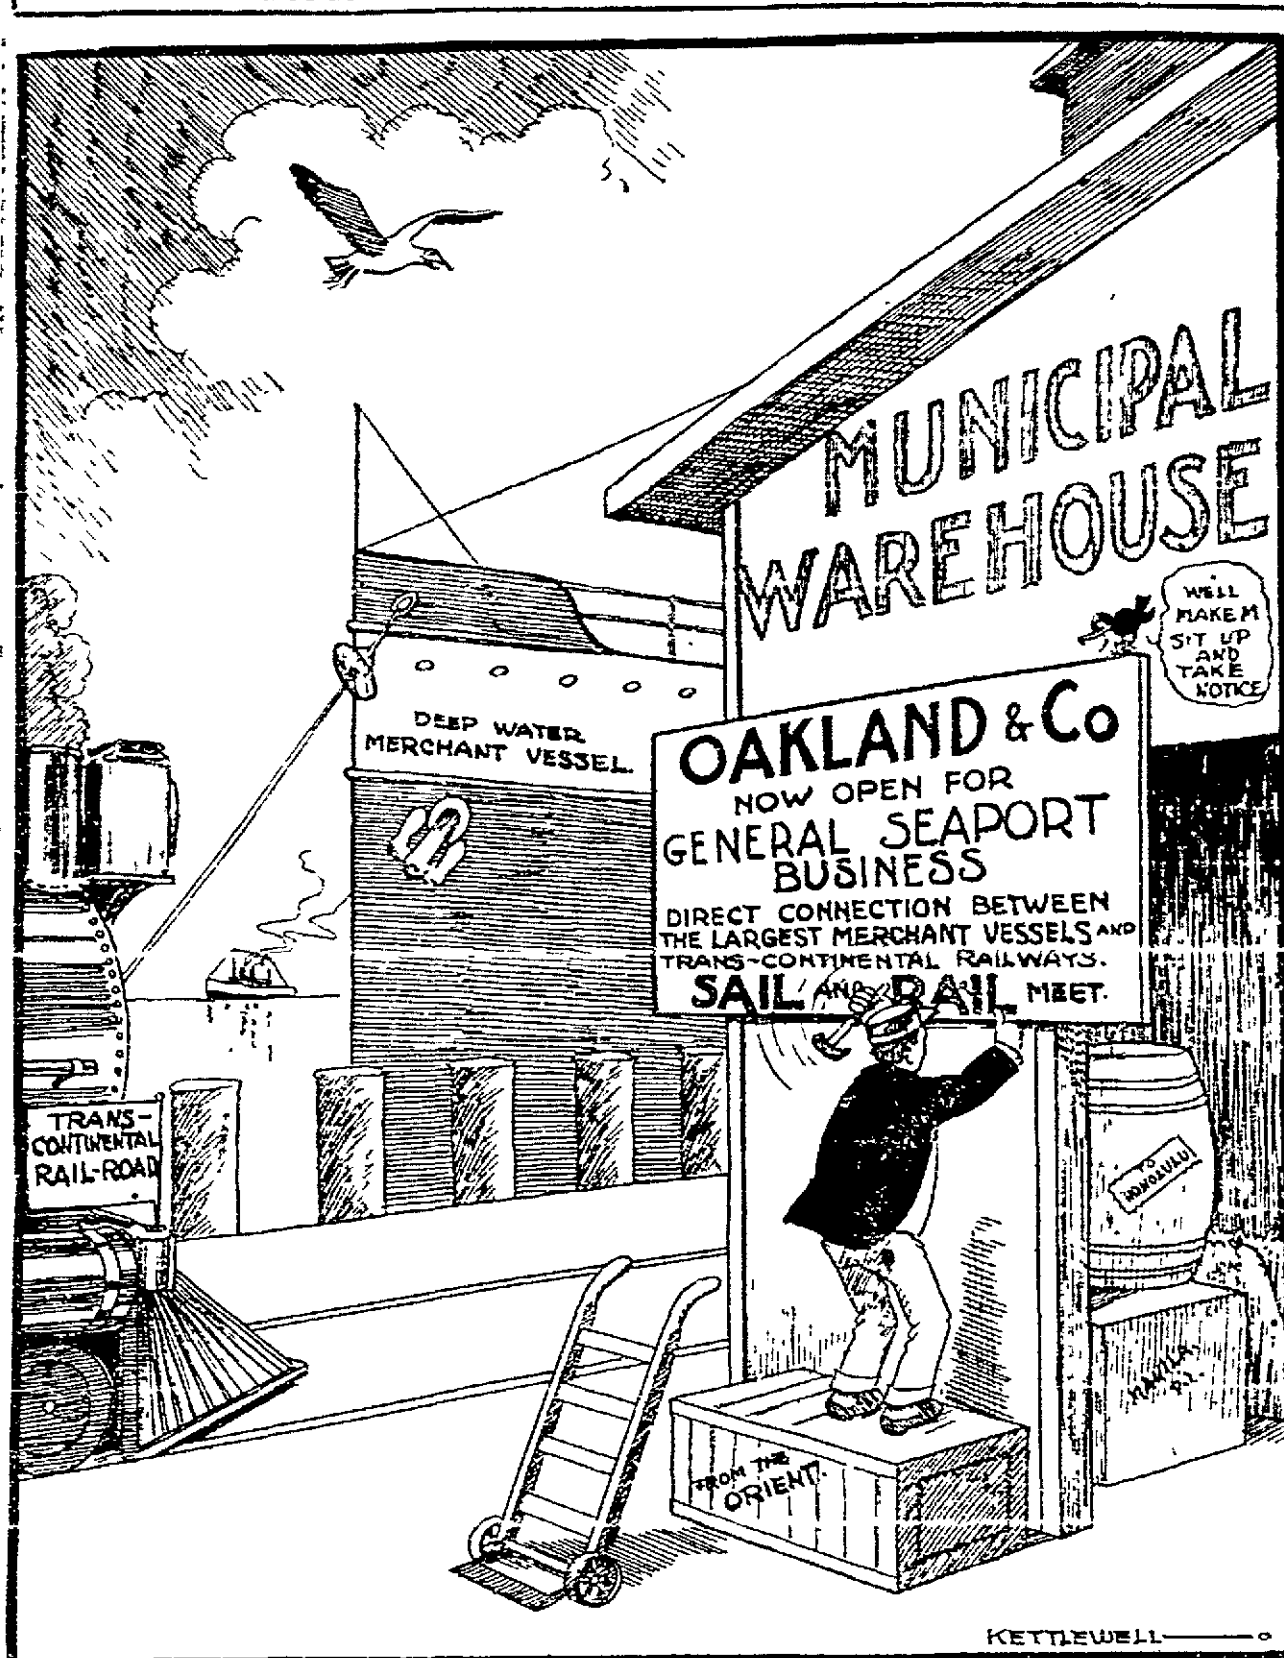

As head of the Republican Publicity Association Mr. Bourne doubtless had a political motive in the publication of this statement, but nevertheless it is not "ridiculously untrue." The balance of $109,000,000 reported in the Treasury's daily statements includes $57,500,000 credits to disbursing officers and $33,000,000 of subsidiary bill coin, silver bullion and minor coin, none of which identity is a reliable for disbursements.

There's no use barking the truth. The government has unlimited credit, but the Treasury is depleted.—New York Herald.

BEING A MAN GOOD EXERCISE.

You need not be a ballplayer yourself to derive physical benefit from the game. Just sit in the bleachers and let your enthusiasm do the rest. Be one of the howling mob, yell as loudly as you want to when you feel like it. It's good for you. Every time you jump up and down and yell for a home run, every time you forget yourself and let your excitement have full play, the blood is sent racing through your veins and arteries, and every organ of your body is yanked and stimulated. Every time you "bawl out" the umpire and cheer your favorites the oxygen rushes into your lungs while worry and depression are forgotten. Watching a ball game is more stimulating than drinking whisky, and it leaves no injurious after effects.—Salt Lake Telegram.

HANGING OUT OUR SHINGLE

THE PASSING OF THE COWBOY

Joseph G. McCoy was credited, in the brief dispatch noting his death the other day, with having "laid out the 1000-mile trail from Texas to Abilene, Kan., over which more than 19,000,000 cattle were driven." Whether he was really the first to drive a herd of "longhorns" over that truly historic highway, the scene of the greatest pastoral movement ever known, it seems clear that of that epic age of the plains he was a part.

Made by nature for cattle breeding, producing in good years 95 calves to each 100 cows, the Texas grazing lands at the close of the civil war were tenanted by millions of cattle without definite market or determinate value. Demand for an outlet was imperative, and the only way was to the north. The building of the Kansas Pacific rail-road made Abilene and Ellsworth the first great meeting points of the locomotive and the "longhorn."

Then opened the age of the cattle baron and the cowboy, and the adding to American life of types which will long occupy the pen of the romancer. It was not merely a marketing; it was also an exodus. From Texas came the pressure that swept the Indian aside and destroyed the bison herds. Owing to climatic conditions Texas did not mature steers ready for the outcutter's block. But transplanted to the north and "double wintered" the "longhorn" took on flesh like a "native." The climax of the period came in 1884, when over 300 herds, or nearly 300,000 head, crossed the Red river, bound for the new Northwest, requiring for their guiding and guarding about 4000 men and over 30,000 horses.

It was work for men ready to live hard and often die suddenly. It was a time when fortunes were won fast and faded swiftly. It fastened upon the popular imagination the figure of the cowboy, beside that of the "diers. It had its heroes and its villains and its hardships. A Texas college professor has collected their rude songs. It has found, in a way, its historian in Andy Adams, whose "Log of a Cowboy," "The Outfit" and "Reed Antony" are fiction only in frame and all fact in the picture. It did not last long, for Joseph McCoy, not yet 50, had seen it all, from eager beginning to valiant flower and glorious end in a multitude of sword and often bloody little feud.

The old order has changed, giving place unto the new. The swelling uses of human life have swept over the "range." It is, perhaps, 15 years since a "longhorn" was seen in the Chicago stockyards. The cattle baron has become a feeder as well as breeder. The cowboy is no longer throned upon his broncho with all the boundless plains for his kingdom. He has become a prosaic tender of cattle within a fence. His limitations are seen on the stage, but the men who "rode the trail" from San Antonio to Dodge and on to Buford and the Canadian line are no more. Some still live, of course, but they are growing old. Soon all who lived the epic of the plains will be gone, and only from the printed page and the distorted recollections of the stage shall we know of that free life under the sun and the stars.—Chicago Record-Herald.

EXACTLY ALIKE.

"You ought to be pleased with these rolls, George, dear," said the young wife. "They are exactly like those your mother used to make when you were a boy."

"Of course they are," replied George, gallantly. "In fact, I thought at first they were the same ones."

OYSTERS—PAST AND PRESENT.

"Did you ever know?" inquired the brave specialist of his customer, "that the Romans planted oysters in beds and fattened them for the table?"

"No; but the habit has fallen into disuse, from the looks of these you are serving. If they were ever planted in a bed, it must have been in the kind they have in a 10-cent lodging-house."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

VARYING OPINIONS.

Out at the front, "somewhere in France," two regiments were returning to the trenches when they chanced to meet. At once there was the usual exchange of wit.

"Where's the bloomin' war gone to, Ginch?" asked one north country lad.

"Dunno," replied one of the south-shires. "We've planted some daffodils in front of our trench."

"Giddy! optimists!" snorted the man from the north. "We've planted acorns!"—Chicago News.

TAKE IT BACK.

NEEDY AT HOME.

To the Editor of The Tribune:
I notice in a new appeal for the Belgians, headed by some of the best people in the two bay cities.
I do not wish to object to the proposition, which is so doubt worthy, but want to ask what about our worthy poor at home today? Charity, we are told, begins at home. There are thousands in Oakland and San Francisco who can't get work—good mechanics in all lines with families to support. We know of many such, willing to earn their own bread if given a chance. Why are these people, our own citizens, passed by for people outside of the country? We should need the cry here at home for help, food and clothing.

GETTING AHEAD OF THE COW.

"So-o Boss," "So-o Moolly," the old farmers used to say as with pail and milking stool in hand, they gingerly approached the cranky cow of the little herd, and resting the pail on the ground, waited anxiously lest a hind foot should upset the pail or be planted in its "mammy contents." James Wilson of Porterville, Cal., supports his pail by holte around the neck and waist too high for the average cow to reach it. Although we fear some cows we have known would get at even his invention.—National Magazine.

WORD 'BOOB' IS BONE OF CONTENTION

Alameda Councilman
Says Mayor Called Him
Name

Wilkins Accosts Bartlett,
Stormy Scene
Follows

ALAMEDA, Nov. 21.—Whether or not the word "boob" is a proper name for a councilman, J. H. Wilkins, Alameda councilman, is sure that it is a name for Mayor Bartlett.

"I said nothing of the kind," answered Mayor Bartlett. "I said that Councilman Wilkins told me you were a boob."

"Neither you nor Councilman Wilkins can call me a boob," retorted Wilkins, with even more feeling than had marked the opening of the dispute.

"I have only your word that Councilman Wilkins said that," answered Mayor Bartlett.

"That is what Councilman Wilkins said," insisted Mayor Bartlett, "and I am going to stick to it."

At that moment Councilman Wilkins appeared on the scene. Wilkins turned to him for support.

"Did you call me a boob?" asked Wilkins.

Councilman Wilkins denied the charge by designating Mayor Bartlett as a "boob."

At this juncture Mayor Bartlett threatened to call a policeman to preserve order and his own dignity.

However, Councilman Wilkins took occasion to point out his denunciation of Mayor Bartlett, saying that he also considered him a "boob."

Councilman Wilkins furthered the opinion that the Mayor was not sufficiently qualified in the law to collect bad bills.

As the Mayor left the council chamber, Wilkins said he had a streak of yellow in him "under the passing street car."

This was said as Mayor Bartlett silently sped away in Councilman J. H. Heizer's automobile.

REFERS TO REPORT.

In asking for an explanation from the Mayor, Councilman Wilkins referred to the testimony given by the Mayor before the committee appointed to examine the charges against Councilman Hammond.

In his testimony the Mayor said that Councilman J. H. Wilkins was under his control and that Wilkins was a boob.

The discussion between Mayor Bartlett and the councilmen followed a heated recital of the charges against Councilman Hammond, and that of Judge R. B. Tappan, regarding the hearing of the charges against Councilman Hammond.

Councilmen Roda and Probst were absent.

HOUSEHOLD SHOW TO GIVE 'POINTERS' TO HOSTESSES

MRS. M. J. LAYMAN, PATRONESS OF OAKLAND WOMEN'S HOUSEHOLD SHOW TO BE HELD AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Oakland Women's Affair Is to Be One of the Season's Successes

The Oakland Women's Household Show will be one of the unusual events of the season. Yesterday patronesses met at the Hotel Oakland to discuss plans for the affair, which will be opened at the Municipal Auditorium on December 2, and remain open to the public until December 11.

It will give Oakland housewives an unique opportunity to gain ideas in cooking, sewing, and other domestic arts.

Shortly after being elected patroness, Mrs. Mary L. Haines, noted lecturer on culinary art and cooking expert, will give lectures and demonstrations during the day.

She will have hot and cold luncheon, and give the results of her study and experiences in informal talks.

In the evenings there will be tables set for model wedding breakfasts, luncheons, formal dinners, and so on. Decorations will include the latest approved ideas in the smart set, and the menus will be carefully arranged. Just what to have and how to serve it will be explained and illustrated. Oakland hostesses need make no mistakes in entertaining this season after the lessons of the Household Show, which will have other details of interest not yet announced.

The patronesses are: Mrs. Henry Wetherbee, Mrs. Isaac Requa, Mrs. Mark Requa, Mrs. William Haines, Mrs. Frank Harrison, Mrs. J. C. Downey, Mrs. M. J. Layman, Mrs. John Leslie, Mrs. Mrs. Deane, Mrs. C. W. Harrison, Mrs. Daniel Easterbrook, Mrs. Robert Lewis Hill, Mrs. A. C. Posey, Mrs. William H. Creed, Mrs. John Newton Porter, Mrs. George Reininger, Mrs. Walter Walker, Mrs. Conville, Mrs. Stierrett and Mrs. Charles Chamberlain.

The letter embracing the offer is as follows:

"In view of the approach of spring sports and the athletic differences existing between California and Stanford, definite steps should be taken to bring the two colleges to a mutual understanding."

"Inasmuch as the principal thing which brought the severance of athletic relations was the freshmen rule, and both colleges being equally at fault, it is suggested that the two colleges should agree to a mutual understanding."

"The Stanford student body that a board of arbitration be appointed to settle the dispute. In order to reach a speedy and correct solution of the difficulty, a board composed of men belonging to neither institution would arrive at a clearer and better settlement."

"Such a board would give an unbiased opinion and the associated students of Stanford will abide by such opinion."

"Hoping that this suggestion will meet with the approval of the associated students of the University of California, I beg to remain, very truly yours,"

"P. R. WILSON,
President A. S. S. U."

NO CHANCE TO FIX ROW, U.C. BELIEF

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21.—"There will be no patching up of the differences between Stanford and California unless Stanford agrees to eliminate freshmen," said John Stroud, California graduate manager, here today.

"The fresh question was the question of the split and unless Stanford will agree to play us without them there will be no patching up."

PERKINS, Nov. 21.—The prospect of any immediate acceptance of Stanford's offer to arbitrate her differences with California was apparent on the campus of the latter university this morning.

President Charles Street of the Associated Students was in receipt this morning of the letter from President P. R. Wilson of the Stanford student body embodying the Stanford request, but was unable to say what action would be taken upon it prior to its consideration by the executive committee.

Graduate Manager John Stroud was in Los Angeles today with Coach James G. Schaeffer and Dean T. M. Putnam, faculty representative of all three, accompanying the team which tomorrow will play the University of Southern California.

Stroud and Putnam are student and faculty representatives who have kept the closest touch with the situation. Fred Perkins, Stanford's athletic director, this morning he saw little chance of the arbitration offer being accepted. He said:

"There is nothing to arbitrate. We want the freshmen rule. Stanford does not want it. Either one college or the other must concede that point. There can be no such thing as an impartial arbitration committee on the matter. Members of such a committee could not help but be biased, as they must be selected from the student or alumni body of both institutions. I have heard no sentiment about the campus to amount to anything that points to acceptance of the offer."

SEE ONE CHANGE.

It was pointed out by students on the campus this morning that in the discussions of the joint alumni committee, which, on May 13, attempted to readjust the intercollegiate differences, it was agreed by Stanford to drop the freshmen rule, but that the Stanford committee would accept the ineligibility of freshmen rule if it did not go into effect for two years and that later the Stanford committee offered to make it optional.

Stanford's position was that the freshmen rule was a permanent concession, as the Stanford committee would accept the ineligibility of freshmen rule if it did not go into effect for two years and that later the Stanford committee offered to make it optional.

Definite refusal further to treat with Stanford was given by the executive committee of the Associated Students here in resolutions adopted at the end of May.

"The Stanford committee will not accept the intercollegiate agreement committee and of the special alumni committee to effect an athletic agreement with students of Stanford University has failed now, therefore, it is resolved that the said committee and each of them be discharged and that all further negotiations with the said students of Stanford University be for an indefinite period discontinued."

There has since been no move here to take advantage of the "for the present clause."

The Stanford offer must be laid first by Stanford, before the executive committee. The committee has power to reject it finally or to lay it before a meeting of all the members of the Associated Students.

GIRL BEDECKED IN FINERY NOT 'WANTED': FLEES

ANGELINA MARINA.

Family Purse Pays for Holiday

Angelina Marina, a little Gypsy girl, wearied of the quiet life at home and started out this week to celebrate Thanksgiving with her mother, who lives at 1524 Center street, she borrowed $50 from the family purse and departed.

A new dress, a pair of red silk stockings, a new hat with beautiful feathers of many colors and jewelry consisting of a watch, a ring, a brooch, a pair of earrings and a necklace, she had on her person.

Having donned her festive regalia, Angelina sought out the photographic studio having pictures which appealed to her as those of the most beautiful women in Oakland displayed in the show window.

She had her photograph taken in many poses and paid the required deposit for making up the pictures on the most expensive mountings and with beautiful velvet sepia prints.

Satisfied with her first day's adventures, Angelina returned home. The welcome she received did not please her and last night she departed again for parts unknown. Her mother, Mrs. Anna Marina, has asked the police to assist in finding the girl.

Angelina is described as 11 years of age, 4 feet 6 inches in height, weighing 60 pounds. She is a typical Gypsy girl in complexion and her face has the dainty beauty of the Gypsy in girlhood. She wears a gray dress, red stockings and black shoes.

Whitlock Arrives; Is Silent on War Moves

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Brand Whitlock, Minister to Belgium, accompanied by Mrs. Whitlock, arrived here last night on the Holland-America liner Ryndam after a fourteen-day voyage from Rotterdam, the longest and one of the roughest crossings in the boat's history.

Whitlock will pay a flying visit to Washington, Cleveland, Toledo and back to New York, and will then return to his post in Brussels, sailing from New York on the Rotterdam on December 2.

After fifteen months in the war zone, Whitlock, naturally preferred other topics of conversation and throughout the voyage in his talks with passengers he avoided any reference to the war, his work in Brussels or to the Cavell case.

Though not in the least tired and somewhat nervous.

The Ryndam brought 132 first-class, 209 second and 163 steerage passengers. Sir Herbert Tree, the English actor, en route to California, was among the passengers.

Thought in Confusion in Japan, Says Baron

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—Speaking at a luncheon in his honor given by the International Sunday-school Association here, Baron E. Shibusawa, Japan's leading financier, said his main interest in the convention of the association which is planned to hold in Tokyo in October, 1916, was based on the fact that the work done by the Sunday-school association is exactly the kind of work he was doing in Japan.

"The world of thought in Japan is in a state of confusion," said Baron Shibusawa, speaking through an interpreter. "There are all sorts of religions and cults there, and so, in order to direct the minds of the people, it has been thought best to form an organization in Japan similar to your Sunday-school."

MILLIONAIRE EXTRADITED.

OAKLAND IS FIFTH CITY IN SUICIDES

More Men Than Women
Kill Selves, Say
Statistics

California Communities
Lead Nation in List

Oakland is the fifth city in California in suicides.

This is the gruesome distinction conferred on this city by the statistics of one of the greatest insurance companies in the world. The Pacific coast in general produces more suicides than any other portion of the country, and San Francisco leads the Pacific coast.

The report is made by F. L. Hoffman, statistician of the Prudential Life Insurance Company, on one hundred large cities in this country. He shows that the proportion of suicides last year was higher than any other year since 1905.

His figures indicate that in proportion to population suicide is more frequent on the Pacific coast than in the East. San Francisco heads the list with 234 suicides and a rate of 52.4, while San Diego, Sacramento, Los Angeles and Oakland follow. In all these cities, Mr. Hoffman reports, the rate for 1914 was in excess of that for the previous year.

The New York borough of Manhattan and the Bronx, with 618 suicides, has a rate of 20.2, while Brooklyn's rate is 15.6. Figures for the entire city are not recorded. The low rate here is attributed in part to the law prohibiting the carrying of firearms. Mr. Hoffman says that the laws governing the sale of poison seem not to be properly enforced in many communities.

Three times as many men as women commit suicide, the figures show.

Gen. Wood Replies to Jack London

"Contemptible," Writes
Army Head

A spirited reply to the characterization of soldiers credited to Jack London, and which created a lively protest in military circles, has been made by General Leonard S. Wood, chief of staff, who, following a letter received by W. D. Fink protesting the sentiment, sent a reply scolding the author and circulation of his work. The letter follows:

"I quite agree with you in your strong condemnation of the unpatriotic and contemptible utterances purporting to be from Mr. London, which are being circulated through the mails by being printed on the backs of envelopes."

"I am sending the envelope you inclose to me to the postmaster-general, through the proper channels, with request that appropriate action be taken."

"I, a self-respecting, patriotic American could be guilty of such sentiments as are expressed and no American worthy of the name will aid in circulating it."

"I do not know of any way we can reach a man of this sort. He simply was born so. We cannot make a silk purse out of a pig's ear or a patriot out of a creature of this kind. Let him alone. He is his own worst enemy."

"The government alone can deal with the question of circulating this sort of stuff through the mails. Very truly yours,"

"LEONARD WOOD."

The sentiments to which the soldiers object were as follows:

"Young man, the lowest aim in your life is to be a good soldier. The good soldier never tries to distinguish right from wrong. He never thinks never reasons. He only obeys."

They were found stamped on the backs of envelopes which are barred now from the mails. London denies the authorship of the protested paragraphs.

Methodist Bishop Dies From Paralysis

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 24.—Bishop David H. Moore of the Methodist Episcopal church, who was stricken with paralysis on a train while returning to his home here early today, died tonight.

Shortly after being elected bishop in 1909, Dr. Moore was stationed at Shanghai, China. From the Far East he was sent to Portland, Ore., where he remained head of his church until appointed bishop at Cincinnati in 1914.

Bishop Moore entered the Civil War in 1860 as a private. At the close of the war he was mustered out as a colonel.

Dr. Moore was chosen in 1875 president of the Colorado Seminary and Chancellor of the University of Denver. In 1889 he became editor of the Western Christian Advocate. Bishop Moore was born in Athens, Ohio, in 1823.

Thanksgiving Dinner Arranged for Poor

Arrangements have been completed for the Thanksgiving dinners for the poor to be given by the Volunteers of America, according to Captain L. A. Ecklund, in charge of the work. Local merchants have donated the needed supplies for the dinner. The final preparations are being made by the officers in charge of the affair at the Volunteers' headquarters, 237 Franklin street.

Fine Arts Palace at Exposition to Remain

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—Plans for the opening of the Palace of Fine Arts at the Exposition from January 1 to May 1, to crystallize public sentiment in the Exposition perpetuation plans, have been completed by the committee in charge.

The art gallery will house the great exhibit and post-exposition season tickets are to be issued admitting bearers to this.

Reuben B. Hale, chairman of the preservation committee, has issued a report to the exposition directors pointing out that the art palace and other features can be saved, and suggesting several plans for preserving such exposition architecture as can be retained. Much of the work is temporary and could not survive, he says, and this must be removed. That a useful purpose must be found for buildings is temporary and could not survive. The report is in the hands of the directors for consideration.

BEARS LEAVE FOR SOUTH TONIGHT TO TACKLE TROJANS

With twenty regulars and ten extra men, the University of California football squad leaves for Los Angeles this evening, where it will meet with the University of Southern California outfit on Howard Field, Los Angeles. Coach Jimmy Schaefer, Professor Putnam, faculty athletic advisor, and Captain Canfield left last night, so as to be on hand to take part in the banquet to be given by the Bear alumni in Los Angeles tonight.

All the members of the team who leave this evening are in fine condition, with the exception of Leroy Sharpe, the star quarter. Sharpe was injured in the Nevada game Saturday. Don Foster will do the signal calling in Sharpe's place.

The blue and gold will be well represented tomorrow. The University cadet band and its leaders, and the U. C. alumni in Southern California will all be on hand to cheer for the Bears.

Los Angeles reports have it that both Fred Kelly and Leo Jovanovich, who were injured in the last Bear-U. S. C. game, may be back in harness tomorrow. Both have recovered from their injuries. It is stated, although several of the men are suffering from slight knockouts received at the hands of the University of Colorado team, who defeated them last Saturday. The Trojans arrived yesterday morning from Utah and the weary trip from the high altitude of Utah to practically sea level may have put the lads in poor shape.

Golf Ass'n Abandons Player Rating Plan

NEW YORK, Nov. 24. — Frank L. Woodward of Denver, president of the United States Golf association, says there will be no official rating of golf players for next season. Woodward, who is here today, says there will be two names at the head of the list, that of the open and amateur champions. All the others will be grouped alphabetically.

He adds:

"While the minor bodies will undoubtedly have a pretty good idea as to where their leading golfers belong, they will, because of the present sentiment, naturally be inclined to be liberal with their findings and as a result include players who may be doubtful cases. It is the duty of the executive committee, which of course must be the final court."

"With the new plan of starting with an eighteen hole elimination round on Saturday, it will be possible to take care of a good many players. The tournament held around the first of September ought to be able to handle close to 200 players."

"The United States Golf association is not going to let up in the least in its effort to keep the game free from taint. Amateurs must be pure if they are to remain as amateurs. Certain ones who have been playing with their feet upon the line between amateur and professional have been given assurances that in future they will keep entirely within bounds."

SECRET PRACTICE AT ANNAPOLIS

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 24. — Signal drill and light skirmishing in which special care will be taken to guard against injuries to 200 of the men, will be held at the Naval Academy this afternoon and evening. The practice will be secret. The lineup which will start the game with Army on Saturday may be announced today.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 24. — The Army football squad will have its last heavy practice today. The coaches planned a long drill of the play which the cadets will use against the navy at New York Saturday.

BERKELEY ELKS WILL CELEBRATE TONIGHT

With plenty of high class entertainment, the Berkeley Elks will stage a high jinks this evening at the Berkeley auditor. Several well known local celebrities are down on the program, among them being Bill J. Heroux, the amateur champion boxer who is also a fine hard tone singer. Ezra Decoto, the prosecuting attorney of Oakland, who is billed for a Portuguese monologue; Jimmy McVey, well known tenor and Oscar Young, pianist, besides several others.

The committee in charge includes E. L. Cullen, chairman; Mel Moffitt, Dave Chapman, David Lee, J. L. Martinez, Paul Dragon and Frank Fuller.

BRITON LOOKS GOOD.

BOSTON, Nov. 24. — Ted Lewis, the English lightweight, knocked out Jim Duffy of Lockport, N. Y., after one minute fighting in the first round here last night. Their match was for twelve rounds.

NOW LOOK OUT.

When a cold hangs on, as often happens, or when you have hardly gotten over one cold before you contract another, look out for you are liable to contract some very serious disease. This succession of colds weakens the system and lowers the vitality so that you are much more liable to contract chronic catarrh, pneumonia or consumption. Cure your cold while you can. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation. It is relied upon by thousands of people and never disappoints them. Try it. It only costs a quarter. For sale by Osgood Bros. ## Trouble With Baseball Incompetence of Club Owners, Says Tip O'Neill

Too Many Men Went Into Field Without Experience Looking for Easy Money

(By BILLY FITZ.)

O'Neill, who has been a mainstay of the Western League and has been a member of the league since its inception, says that the trouble with baseball is not the players, but the owners. He says that too many men have entered the field without the necessary experience and are looking for easy money. He says that the owners are the ones who are responsible for the state of the game, and that they are the ones who are the most incompetent. He says that the owners are the ones who are the most responsible for the state of the game, and that they are the ones who are the most incompetent.

Frank Bancroft Pioneer In Post-Season Touring Sees No Reason for Rule Against Cross-Country Barnstorming

(By RIGHT FIELD.)

What they say will be the last visit of the great professional baseball player, Frank Bancroft, to the Pacific Coast. The great player, who has been a mainstay of the Western League and has been a member of the league since its inception, says that he has no objection to the rule against cross-country barnstorming. He says that he has no objection to the rule against cross-country barnstorming, and that he has no objection to the rule against cross-country barnstorming.

Bancroft, who had charge of this tour, is a pioneer in the matter of arranging tours. He has been a mainstay of the Western League and has been a member of the league since its inception. He has been a pioneer in the matter of arranging tours, and he has been a pioneer in the matter of arranging tours.

In 1913 the Cincinnati Club and the Athletics of Philadelphia visited San Francisco, together with the famous Hop Bitters team of Rochester, N. Y. While they were here they played games against each other and made considerable money.

That was the year Anson, who had been playing third base for the Athletics, was getting his new Chicago team in shape and while here he secured the services of the famous Hop Bitters team of Rochester, N. Y. While they were here they played games against each other and made considerable money.

The first trip to the coast of real championship teams took place in 1913 when the St. Louis Browns and the Chicago White Stockings came here and played games in the old Haight street ballpark. The Browns had won the American Association pennant that year and the White Stockings had won the National League pennant.

So this gave the western people a chance to see the two best teams in America. They made the best of the opportunity, and the games were splendidly attended. In the winter of 1913-1914 San Francisco was given a view of the teams of the East.

CATARRH A BLOOD DISEASE; S. S. S. DRIVES IT FROM YOUR SYSTEM

Because Catarrh affects the nose and throat, causing sores in the nostrils, stoppage of air passages and gathering in the throat, it has been common practice to treat Catarrh by lotions, washes and sprays applied to these parts. This mode of treatment is entirely wrong. It cannot give permanent relief, and it is liable to irritate and aggravate the trouble. Catarrh cannot be trifled with. If allowed to grow, it will cause the bronchial tubes, settle on the lungs, the stomach—indeed, it is a very serious disease. Don't treat it locally. The fact that it causes headaches is proof that it is caused by impure and diseased blood. The one treatment that has proved effective in the treatment of Catarrh is S. S. S. It

MARKET FOR TURKEY PRICES SHATTERED

As Low as 17 Cents Paid; Demand Is Not Heavy

An Unexpected Slump in Price Makes Dinner Inexpensive

The Thanksgiving turkey market collapsed today, much to the surprise of the commission men who had expected this year's sales to be lively, and it was difficult, after the early trade was over, to secure the minimum average of 20 cents per pound. In the first part of the morning extra fancy stock brought as high as 24 cents per pound, but the drop followed and prices were precipitately driven down to ridiculously low figures, many cases of the arriving lot going for 17 cents per pound. On the whole, today's market was a disappointment in quality than yesterday's, as there were many thin and bawled birds showing the effects of underfeeding, or poor feed.

The fruit and vegetable market also fell below expectations in briskness, much less help being given than anticipated. No special changes occurred but there were several arrivals of considerable importance, including a car of eastern bananas, a light shipment of Honolulu pineapples and a car of Hood River Spitzenberg apples of choice variety. Owing to the fact that bananas are growing more plentiful, the price has weakened and the range is now from 3 1/2 to 4 cents per pound.

Strawberries again brought the wide range of $4.50 to $7 per chest, on account of the poor demand and the green condition of the berries. No raspberries whatever were on the market, but in any further appearance this year will be a struggle. Another feature of the fruit market was a drop in cranberries, which were offered today at $10 per barrel—a decided decline from $12.

The first lady apples of the season arrived in small boxes and were selling at 10 cents per box. Events in the vegetable market included a weakening of the lettuce market and the arrival of a large quantity of San Leandro tomatoes. The former especially affected Sacramento lettuce, which could scarcely bring above 75 cents per crate on account of the large influx of Los Angeles and local produce.

The Los Angeles lettuce being of superior grade, sold at $1.15 to $1.25, but next week when local produce is supplying the market, it will probably bring more, as demand will certainly increase. Even the fanciest of the tomatoes were not especially desirable, but the best brought from $1 to $1.50 while in California went as low as 50 cents per pound.

Demands, however, were very slack and most of the dealers to be cleared up after the holidays, as the principal call for Los Angeles and local produce was in small lots bringing $1.25. String beans were very stiff this morning, some from Idaho and some from mandarin 1 1/2 cents per pound, while the light supply from other districts sold at 9 to 11 cents per pound.

Green beans maintained their top of 12 cents in spite of a considerable arrival, and were moving at 10 to 11 cents, with mentioning were to be had. Poles were quite minus, and a few extra fancy beans sold at 10 to 11 cents. Cucumbers were in short supply, but the best brought from $1 to $1.50 while in California went as low as 50 cents per pound.
